

Yonge St Monthly Meeting Roll

Also called, Botsford St, Newmarket Monthly Meeting

A Membership Roll naming parents, children, birth & death dates, etc.
Dates range from 1801 to 1973

Archives: This register is held by the Canadian Quaker Archives and Library in Newmarket, Ontario. It is stored in Box 41, item 1. The fonds is described as O-41-item, with the O standing for Orthodox Botsford St Friends Church in Newmarket is also called Newmarket Meeting and Yonge St Meeting. In 1881, the Orthodox Canada Yearly Meeting separated into Evangelical (church service) and Conservative (silent worship) branches. At Yonge St, the Conservative branch maintained the original 1812 Meeting House on Yonge St. The Botsford St Friends Church was Evangelical with a church service and they were the other part of the separation establishing their church in Newmarket. The Church Friends received the burying ground on Yonge St. Both meetings were named Yonge Street Monthly Meeting, claiming legal and theological continuation to the original meeting body. The Botsford St Friends used the name Newmarket Monthly Meeting on this membership roll.

Jane Zavitz Bond, archivist, wrote that, this Botsford St. Register (oversized) was begun following the Canada Yearly Meeting Orthodox split in 1881. It was deposited along with all the Botsford St. Mtg. minute books in the CYM Archives in the early 1980's, by Marjorie Moore Keffer, clerk at the time, when the Botsford St meeting was laid down. Box 41 was created at that time. It was microfilmed, with other Botsford St records, but not part of the 1975 microfilming.

This register has three sections.

1. Pages 1 to 22 are a nominal index stating the page number in the register for entries in the register for the person named.
2. Pages 23 to 123 are the register recording names, usually parents followed by their children and birth and some death dates and other information. To find the information for the person named in the index, subtract 22 from the transcribers page numbering Pages
3. Pages after 123 are unnumbered miscellaneous pages included in the folder.

This transcription is donated to the Canadian Friends Historical Association (CFHA). It is made freely available and supports search, cut and paste. CFHA will officially grant linking privileges to organizations that support this free access. The transcription was coordinated by Jane Zavitz Bond, archivist for Canada Yearly Meeting, and fully and carefully transcribed by Sheila Havard. The transcription has not been proof read by second person. CFHA wishes to express its gratitude to those who worked on this project.

The text was transcribed as written so researchers must consider the variations in spelling when searching the transcribed text. Transcriber notes are in square brackets. Illegible words are noted as [illegible.]

The Friends Church

Rev. Frank C. Guyatt, Minister

Newmarket, Ont.

Dear Friend: -

Just preceding my minister among you as your pastor I thought it well to write you all that we might have “all things in common.”

We are all anxious and praying to this end, that our church will grow spiritually as well as numerically, so I have jotted down ten ways to help our church grow.

Be in your place unless prevented by some reason which you can conscientiously give to your Lord and Master.

Pray before you come to church.

Pray as you are seated in the church

© Canadian Friends Historical Association, 2018

Never engage in any conversation [illegible] entering the church which will tend to divert your thoughts or the thoughts of others from fellowship.

During the period of meditation, thank God for the Sunday school and pray God's blessing upon it.

Never carry what you think to be the faults of any of the members, away from the church. If tempted to do so, look around, and see some beautiful soul, whose life is a benediction upon us.

Attend Thursday night prayer meeting.

During the week call upon at least one member of the congregation and speak to that one about their soul's salvation.

Prayer for the pastor every day.

Tithe. Bring your envelopes every Sunday.

I trust we are all looking for a rich blessing from God during this year, as much as we put into it, so great will be the blessing.

Will you try to be there as often as you can; try hard to bring some one with you at each service, and may God our Father richly bless us these days, and may we all have the spirit of the Christ, "Who went about doing good, seeking to save those who were lost."

I trust you will take this as a personal letter from

Your pastor,

March 20, 1929.

Dear Friend,
Enclosed is an epistle (1815) from London Y.M.

While going through some old Quaker books I found this among our great-grandmother's things.

She died in the twp of King in 1869. Her uncle John [Tustian] was an English Quaker. Her cousin was Sarah Tustian Rogers of Newmarket, a longtime member of Yonge St. Meeting.

I thought you might like this for the meeting historical records.

[Sincerely,]
C. Davidson

THE EPISTLE FROM THE YEARLY MEETING HELD IN LONDON,
By Adjournments from the 24th of the Fifth Month, to the 2nd of the Sixth Month, inclusive, 1815,

To the Quarterly and Monthly Meetings of Friends, in Great Britain, Ireland, and Elsewhere

Dear Friends,

In offering you the salutation of our love, we believe it right to acknowledge our thankfulness to the Author of all good, that we have been permitted to meet together. We have had again to rejoice in a sense of the goodness of Him who, by his presence, owned us in times past; and, though sensible of the loss of the labour and counsel of some who have recently been removed from the probations of time, we have felt the consoling assurance that the Divine Power is both ancient and new. It is from this holy Source that every enjoyment both spiritual and temporal flows; it is to the Lord Almighty that we are indebted for the blessing of existence, for the means of redemption, and for that lively hope of immortality which comes by Jesus Christ. To his service, then, dear Friends, in obedience to the manifestation of his power, let us offer our talents; to the glory of his great and excellent Name, let us devote our strength and the residue of our days.

The state of our religious Society, as transmitted from the several bodies which constitute this Yearly Meeting, has been again brought under our view. Accounts of the sufferings of our members, chiefly for tithes and other ecclesiastical demands, and for claims of a military nature, to the amount of Fifteen thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven pounds, have been reported; and we are informed that ten of our young men have been imprisoned since last year, for refusing to serve in the local militia.

We are encouraged in believing, that our ancient Christian testimony to the inward teaching of the Spirit of Christ, and to a free gospel ministry, not only continues to be precious to many, but is gaining ground amongst us. The sufferings to which we are exposed, are through the lenity of our government, far less severe than were those of our predecessors. To some, however, we believe that these operate at times as a trial of their faith and love to the Truth. We are disposed to remind such, that patience and meekness of their part will tend both to exalt the testimony in the view of others, and to promote their own advancement in the Christian course.

The Epistle from our friends in Ireland, and those from the several Yearly Meetings on the American Continent, have again convinced us that we are brethren, bound together by the endearing ties of Christian fellowship, desiring as fellow-disciples to follow the same Lord; and we feel, that there is in the gospel of Christ a union that is not dissolved by distance, nor affected by the jarring contentions of men.

We are engaged tenderly to caution friends against an eager pursuit after the things of this life. We believe that many who begin the world with moderate views, meeting at first with success in trade, go on extending their commercial concerns, until they become involved therein to a degree prohibited by the precepts of Christ, and incompatible with their own safety. Thus situated, some may be tempted to adopt a line of conduct, dishonourable in itself and injurious to others. On this subject, we think it right to repeat some advice given by the Yearly Meeting in its printed Epistle of 1771: - “We warn all against a most pernicious practice, too much prevailing amongst the trading part of mankind, which hath often issued in the utter ruin of those concerned therein, namely, that of raising and circulating a fictitious kind of paper credit, with endorsements and acceptances, to give it an appearance of value without an intrinsic reality: a practice highly unbecoming that uprightness which ought to appear in every member of our religious Society, and of which therefore we think it our incumbent duty to declare our disapprobation, (and disunity therewith,) as absolutely inconsistent with that Truth we make profession of.” – Epistle, 1771.

The contentment which characterizes the pious Christian, is a treasure which we covet for all our members; and we especially desire that those who are setting out in life may so circumscribe their expectations, and limit their domestic establishments, as not to bring upon themselves expenses which could only be supported by an imprudent extension of their trade. Care in this respect will enable them to allot more of their time to the service of their fellow-men, and to the promotion of the Lord’s cause. We believe that, were parents to instil into the minds of their children principles of moderation and economy, suited to their future expectations, it would under the Divine blessing not only conduce to their preservation, but promote their safety and comfort in life. We are far from wishing to discourage honest industry; and further still from countenancing in any degree a spirit of avarice. We are not insensible, that the situation of many of our members is such as renders necessary to them a diligent attention to the concerns of this life. Christian simplicity and self-denial we would, however, earnestly recommend: these attained, the object which, in this respect, we have at heart for all our dear friends, will be accomplished.

Amongst other deficiencies reported to us at this time, we have been pained in observing, that many appear to be still satisfied with attending meetings for Divine worship but once in the week. We lament in believing that, where indifference to this primary religious duty prevails in any, the spirit of the world hath obtained the ascendancy in their minds; for these we have often at former times expressed our concern, and now again entreat them to consider the privations of good to which they subject themselves, and those over whom their example prevails, in omitting this most reasonable service. The habit of constant attendance on these occasions, forms an important branch of the religious education of our youth; we are therefore desirous of impressing on the minds of those to whom they are intrusted, and who themselves may be diligent, to beware how they deprive their children of such opportunities on the weekday, even for the sake of their attendance at school.

It has afforded us much satisfaction to believe, that the Christian practice of daily reading in families a portion of Holy Scripture, with a subsequent pause for retirement and reflection, is increasing amongst us. We conceive that it is both the duty and the interest of those who believe in the doctrines of the Gospel, and who possess the invaluable treasure of the sacred Records, frequently to recur to them for instruction and consolation. We are desirous that this wholesome domestic regulation may be adopted every where. Heads of families, who have themselves experienced the benefit of religious instruction, will do well to consider whether in this respect, they have not a duty to discharge to their servants and others of their household. Parents, looking sincerely for help to Him of whom these Scriptures testify, may not unfrequently, on such occasions, feel themselves enabled and engaged to open to the minds of their interesting charge, the great truths of Christian duty and Christian redemption.

In considering this subject, our younger friends have been brought to our remembrance with warm and tender solicitude. We hope that many of you, dear youth, are no strangers to this practice, and to some we trust it has already been blessed. Hesitate not, (we beseech all of this class,) to allot a portion of each day to read and meditate upon the sacred volume in private: steadily direct your minds to Him who alone can open and apply the Scriptures to our spiritual benefit. In these seasons of retirement, seek for ability to enter into a close examination of the state of your own hearts; and as you may be enabled, secretly pray to the Almighty for preservation from the temptations with which you are encompassed. Your advancement in a life of humility, dedication, and dependence upon Divine aid, is a subject of our most tender concern. That you might adorn our holy profession, by walking watchfully before the Lord, and upholding our various testimonies, was the care of some of our dear friends, of whose decease we have been at this time informed. They were concerned in early life to evince their love to the Truth; they served the Lord in uprightness and fear in their generation, and, in their closing moments, were permitted to feel an humble trust that, through the mediation of our Redeemer, they should become heirs of a kingdom that shall never have an end. Let their example encourage you to offer all your natural powers, and every intellectual attainment, to the service of the same Lord, and patiently to persevere in a course of unremitting obedience to the Divine Will.

Now, dear friends, of every age and of every class, we bid you affectionately farewell in the Lord Jesus. Let us ever bear in mind, whether we attempt, under the influence of Christian love, to maintain our testimonies to the spiritual and peaceable kingdom of the Lamb; whether we attempt to promote the present and future welfare of our fellow-members and fellow-men; - let us ever remember, that if we obey the Divine commandments, we shall do all to the glory of God; we shall always acknowledge that it is of his mercy, if we ever become partakers of the unspeakable privilege of the true disciples of Him who "died for all, that they "that live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto "him who died for them and rose again."

2 Co.v.15.
