

West Lake Preparative Meeting, 1828 - 1860

Archives: H-12-4

This minute book is held by the Canadian Quaker Archives and Library in Newmarket, Ontario. In 2005 the original document was digitally filmed and not transcribed till 2017. The pages of the original document were not numbered and the image numbers below refer to this digital copy. The text was transcribed as written so researchers must consider the many variations in spelling when searching the transcribed text. Minor changes to paragraphing were done to make reading easier especially in the case of long run on sentences. Transcribers notes are in square brackets and hard to decipher words are indicated with question marks.

This new transcription is donated to the Canadian Friends Historical Association (CFHA). It is made freely available and supports search, cut and paste. CFHA will officially grant linking privileges to organizations that support this free access. The transcription was done by Carman Foster and the proof reading by Carman Foster and Randy Saylor. CFHA wishes to express its gratitude to all those who worked on this project.

West Lake was established in 1803 as a Preparative meeting under Adolphustown Monthly Meeting. West Lake first built a meeting house on "Bowerman Hill" just west of Bloomfield. Due to growth, in 1817 a new and larger meeting house was built in eastern Bloomfield on the site of the current Bethany Christian Reformed Church. The old burial ground survives south of the road across from this meeting site. In 1821, West Lake was established as the Monthly Meeting and Adolphustown became a Preparative meeting. Subordinate meetings were Green Point, Ameliasburgh, Haldimand and Cold Creek.

This Preparative meeting book was started by the Hicksite Quakers after the separation in 1828. Presumably the original Preparative meeting book continued in Orthodox hands and has not survived. After 1828 there were now two separate Hicksite and Orthodox Monthly meetings. The old meeting house and burial ground remained with the Orthodox Quakers. The Hicksites built a new meeting house at the west end of Bloomfield. The Hicksite Burial ground is still active and situated west across the street from where the meeting house stood.

Researchers are requested to cite the transcription when incorporating passages excerpted from this transcription. Please note that CFHA welcomes written comment, submissions and research related to the Canadian Quaker experience and legacy for publication consideration in The Meetinghouse newsletter or the Canadian Quaker History Journal. Please contact chair@cfha.info for additional details, and see also the submission guidelines provided on the CFHA website.

This is a complete transcription and it is hoped that researchers will find it revealing about the life and times of these early Quaker settlers in Upper Canada. A microfilm done in 1974 is available at the Archives of Ontario. A more recent filming of the original minute book done by Ancestry.com is on line with a searchable nominal index. This full transcription and the Ancestry images will complement each other.

The committee appointed to consider and report on the relation in which those stand, who have separated from our religious society, and set up, or hold meetings, distinct from the order of this Yearly Meeting ; also on the measures which it is expedient to adopt, in regard to such individuals; have agreed to recommend, that when monthly meetings shall become united in sentiment, that the time has arrived for instituting proceedings towards them, such meetings may do so, by a simplified record of the case ; and that after overseers have waited on such individuals and inquired whether they desire to retain their membership with us, by a return to society, and shall meet with no encouragement to expect a return, they may bring the cases to the Preparative Meetings, having previously notified such individuals of the proceeding. And, on its coming before the Monthly meetings, a record of the case be made as nearly according to the subjoined form, as the circumstances will admit.

Extracted from the minutes.

SAMUEL MOTT,
MARY BRISTOL, } Clerks.

And Monthly Meetings are at liberty to receive such into membership again on their application, without acknowledgment.

Third day Morning 12th of the Month The Meeting proceeded to examine the state of Society as exhibited in the Answers to the Queries from the quarters and Half Years Meetings during the Consideration of the State of Society Many living and instructive testimonies relative to the attendance of our Religious Meetings - to the Maintainance of Love and unity - and above all to right education of our dear Children and the bringing them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord Were born by deeply, energised friends the Younger portion of the Meeting were feelingly urged to a faithfull Maintainance of our testimonies upon the Subject of plainness of Speech behaviour and apparel and an ardent desire was felt that parents may understand the position they Occupy in the Minds of the Children it was shown that their teachings were greater than the teachings of all the great men of the world and while the learning of the school may fade from the memory the Simple lessons of home written by parental love and parental Care upon the hearts of Childhood survive the lapse of years that they Continue to linger round the heart and often bring the wanderers from virtue in penitense and Contrition to the enjoyment of the purity the tenderness and peace of their early days

The State of Society in several parts of the Yearly Meeting being brought before us by the reports from pelham and by other Concerned friends it was Concluded to appoint a Committee to unite with women friends in taking the Subject into Consideration and after attending to the openings of truth there in report to a future Sitting

The anual concern of the meeting for the welfare and prosperity of its members, having now led friends to consider the State of Society as exhibited in the reports from the Quarterly and half yearly meetings, a summary to the answers was agreed to, while the minds of friends were occupied in the reports of the state of our subordinate meetings, and their ~~minds~~ feelings interested to prevent so many departures from the paths indicated by our high and holy teacher, much exercise seemed to center upon the neglect appearing from all the reports to have occurred in the attendance of our ~~regs~~ religious assemblies and a deep conviction appeared to be felt that it was the fruitfull source of much sorrow and loss, it was abundently shown to be due cause of disunity, that the badge of dissipleship sits heavily upon those who dis[r]egard this solemn obligation that man who dispise this apostolic enjunction seldom place a high estimate upon the writings of the apostles or make much progress in pur and vital religion that the legitimate consequences were to blind moral and religious impressions, to diminish the feelings of affectionate interest, weaken the bonds of gospel fellowship, and that charity that thinkith no evil, that the mingling of friends and of families in acts of devotion is an inducement to guard with increaseing wachfullness, our spirits and feelings, sauve us from tale bearing and detraction, and qualifies us to feel for each others infirmities and to travial together for the prosperity of zion and the enlargement of her borders, that carelessness faithlessness and indifference upon such subjects lead men to skepticism and infidelity and to throw off the restraints and the insitutions of society and must end in a seperation from all the engagements and all the blessings of spirituals communion, those who were in the practice of attending were reminded of the advice of the patriarch of our Society to hold all their meetings in the power of God it was shown by the testimony and the experience of our elder bretheren that their temperal interest had never suffered by such attendance or by having their minds thus calmed soothed and tranquilized, and if any such loss could be sustained the glorious comfort of the good and faithfull servent fare overbalanced any Such disadvantage.
